PROPOSED FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

INSTRUCTIONS

The following recommended disposition has been sent to United States District Judge J. Leon Holmes. Any party may serve and file written objections to this recommendation. Objections should be specific and should include the factual or legal basis for the objection. If the objection is to a factual finding, specifically identify that finding and the evidence that supports your objection. An original and one copy of your objections must be received in the office of the United States District Court Clerk no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of the findings and recommendations. The copy will be furnished to the opposing party. Failure to file timely objections may result in a waiver of the right to appeal questions of fact.

If you are objecting to the recommendation and also desire to submit new, different, or additional evidence, and to have a hearing for this purpose before the District Judge, you must, at the same time that you file your written objections, include the following:

1. Why the record made before the Magistrate Judge is inadequate.
2. Why the evidence proffered at the hearing (if such a hearing is granted) was not offered at the hearing before the Magistrate Judge.

3. The detail of any testimony desired to be introduced at the new hearing in the form of an offer of proof, and a copy, or the original, of any documentary or other non-testimonial evidence desired to be introduced at the new hearing.

From this submission, the District Judge will determine the necessity for an additional evidentiary hearing.

Mail your objections and “Statement of Necessity” to:

Clerk, United States District Court

DISPOSITION

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Guy Barnes, a state inmate proceeding pro se, filed this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, together with a Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 (Doc. No. 1). Although Plaintiff submitted a declaration that makes the showing required by § 1915(a), his Motion should be denied. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a).

II. SCREENING

The Court is required to screen complaints seeking relief against a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. §1915(a). Additionally, the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA), 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), provides that:

[i]n no event shall a prisoner bring a civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action or proceeding under this section if the prisoner has, on three (3) or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

Plaintiff has had at least three complaints dismissed as frivolous and for failure to state a claim,¹ and is considered a “three-striker” within the meaning of the PLRA. Plaintiff may, however, be permitted to proceed in forma pauperis if he falls under the “imminent danger” exception to the three strikes rule set forth above. 28 U.S.C. §1915(g). This exception does not apply to allegations of past danger, and the alleged harm must be “real and proximate” and occurring at the time the complaint is filed. Lewis v. Sullivan, 279 F.3d 526, 531 (7th Cir. 2002). In the Eighth Circuit, the exception does not apply unless plaintiff alleges “specific fact allegations of ongoing serious physical injury, or of a pattern of misconduct evidencing the likelihood of imminent serious physical injury.” Martin v. Shelton, 319 F.3d 1048, 1050 (8th Cir. 2003). Furthermore, although serious physical injury is not defined in the statute, the phrase has been interpreted to include a “chronic disease that could result in serious harm.” Ibrahim v. District of Columbia, 463 F.3d 3, 7 (D.C.Cir.2006). In addition, “heart palpitations, chest pains, labored breathing, choking sensations, and paralysis” resulting from a denial of medication were considered serious injuries in Ciarpaglini v. Saini, 352 F.3d 328, 330 (7th Cir. 2003).

In this case, Plaintiff complains Defendants failed to protect him from harm with respect to an incident which occurred on April 12, 2010, over three years ago (Doc. No. 2, p. 4). The Court finds that Plaintiff’s allegations are insufficient to support a finding that he is in imminent danger of serious physical injury, as provided in the statute, and that he should be required to pay the filing fee in order to prosecute this action.

¹ See 2:10-cv-02030-JLH (W.D.Ar.); 5:96-cv-00500-GH (E.D.Ar.); 5:10-cv-00152-JMM (E.D. Ar.)

III. CONCLUSION

IT IS, THEREFORE, RECOMMENDED that:

1. Plaintiff Barnes' Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Doc. No. 1) be DENIED.
2. Should Plaintiff wish to continue this case, he be required to submit the statutory filing fee of $400.00² to the Clerk, noting the above case style and number within ten (10) days of the date of this Order, together with a motion to reopen the case. Upon receipt of the motion and full payment, the case will be reopened.
3. Plaintiff's Complaint be DISMISSED without prejudice.

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED this 14th day of May, 2013.

JEROME T. KEARNEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

²Effective May 1, 2013, the cost for filing a new civil case increased to $400, due to the implementation of a new $50 administrative fee.
